OVERVIEW

Riviera has announced two exciting new models to our expanding collection, the company's first new under-40-foot models in nearly a decade. Initial details of the sporty and adventurous 395 SUV and a blue-water 39-foot Open SMY were unveiled during the recent Sydney International Boat Show. Both models will have their World Premieres in 2018. The two models share a new hull and deck design, offering two generous staterooms and a large bathroom on the accommodation deck, a spacious saloon and an open cockpit perfectly designed for relaxing and entertaining or for a raft of water sports. Both offer features and options not seen in these two collections previously. Riviera owner and Chairman Rodney Longhurst the motor yachts provide a compelling new entree to the Riviera family. "These models offer exceptional boating options in an easy-to-handle size - the single-level entertaining that is in the DNA of our popular SUV collection and the go-anywhere...
